"BUT THERE IS A FRIEND WHO STICKS CLOSER THAN A BROTHER." PROVERBS 18:24

DEAR FRIEND OF ISRAEL,

UTTERLY SHAMELESS ... chilling, and profoundly dangerous ...

That is all anyone can say about the reckless and disturbing U.S. House testimony three Ivy League university presidents gave last month. Intensely questioned, the chiefs at Harvard, MIT, and Penn repeatedly REFUSED to condemn calls for the genocide of Jews.

"Does calling for the genocide of Jews violate Penn's code of conduct, yes or no?" Rep. Elise Stefanik (R-NY) grilled Penn President Liz Magill.

Her answer? It all depends ...

"If the speech turns into harassment, it can be harassment, yes," Magill dodged, adding, "It is a context-dependent decision."

The presidents of Harvard and MIT said much the same. Let me be clear. NO "context" can ever justify calling for the genocide of Jews!

This despicable ivory tower testimony came after Hamas tortured, mutilated, and slaughtered more than 1,200 Jews in Israel. It followed weeks of ugly pro-Palestinian protests stateside at these prestigious schools and others nationwide. The genocidal chant, "From the river to the sea, Palestine will be free," echoed off ivy-draped buildings.

- A Harvard Law Review editor joined a pro-Hamas mob that surrounded a Jewish student, shouting "Shame, shame!" Harvard authorities did nothing.
- More than a third of Jewish college students hide their Jewishness on campus, a poll revealed. More than half say they are sad or scared.

- A Harvard-Harris poll found that a stunning 48% of 18-24-year-olds say the savage Hamas assault on Oct. 7 that killed 1,200 innocent Israelis "can be justified by the grievance of Palestinians."

You and I must speak out now!

Your opinion matters, and I am asking you to share your pro-Israel views with Washington and the media by completing the 2024 U.S.-Israel Relations Survey.

It's your chance to sound off on your pro-Israel stance ... to remind those who write our laws and shape public opinion that millions of Americans love Israel ... and stand with the Jewish state.

Do it right away. I want to collect and tabulate your responses and those of others, and put the results in front of Congress, the media, and Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu just as soon as possible.

Join me in telling lawmakers in Washington that you, as an American, love Israel — and that you have had it with the tidal wave of antisemitic hate that flooded America after Hamas slaughtered more than 1,200 Israelis on Oct. 7.

Thousands have rallied, chanting, "From the river to the sea, Palestine will be free," and "Long live the intifada" — both calls to eliminate Israel and murder Jews.

As you do, I ask for your much-needed gift to help Christians in Defense of Israel fight surging antisemitism in the United States.

- Your generosity empowers our pro-Israel education and advocacy.
- You help us fight for pro-Israel policy in our nation's capital.
- And you help train college-age Christians to be champions for Israel and the Jewish people through Covenant Journey, which leads transformational and spiritually energizing visits to the Holy Land.

I'll give you one more reason to act now to complete and return the U.S.-Israel Relations Survey, along with your gracious support: JOE BIDEN.

January is critical to the success of Israel's war to eliminate Hamas and ensure the Jewish state's national survival.

Unimpeded, the IDF can prevail against Hamas — wiping out the terror army's extensive infrastructure of tunnels and rocket launchers hidden under homes and hospitals across the coastal enclave at Israel's southern border.

But Biden stands in the way.

When he visited the grieving Jewish state shortly after the vicious and barbaric Hamas slaughter of more than 1,200 people, Biden said all the right words, declaring:

As long as the United States stands — and we will stand forever — we will not let you ever be alone.

But he is now working to undermine and frustrate total Israeli victory. He recently accused Israel of “indiscriminate bombing” — an utterly false libel.

Biden is using hardball tactics to bend Israel to his will. He reportedly threatened to withhold the U.S. veto on a U.N. Security Council resolution calling for an end to Israel's war in Gaza. He did so to force Israel to let fuel and aid into Hamas-controlled Gaza.

Faced with that threat, Israel relented in early December and allowed more fuel and aid in — essentially resupplying Hamas at the behest of Biden.

“We are fighting with one hand tied behind our back because we are supposed to take care of the population in Gaza,” a retired Israel general and former national security adviser told the Wall Street Journal.

Speaking of Team Biden, he said: “With one hand, they are helping us, and with the other, they are helping Hamas.”

Despite Biden, Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu is determined to wage the war “until the end” and to secure “total victory” against Hamas.

“Ultimately this is our war. Ultimately, we have to make the decisions. Ultimately, we do make the decisions,” Netanyahu said in December. “We try and often succeed in convincing our American friends. I hope and believe that will be the case in the future.”

Your voice can help tip the balance in Israel's favor!

Please answer the U.S.-Israel Relations Survey and return it with your generous gift. We will forward the complete results of the survey to Congress, the media, and to Prime Minister Netanyahu.

And while Biden sends billions in sanctions relief to Israel's archenemy, Iran, there are many other threats to the Jewish people and to Israel.

- Raging antisemitism is filling the streets of America and has taken up residence in academia and in Congress.
- Rep. Pramila Jayapal, chair of the influential Congressional Progressive Caucus, called Israel a “racist state” in July. In December, she refused, when asked, to clearly condemn Hamas for the unimaginably horrific sexual violence it committed against Israeli women on Oct. 7.
- At the United Nations, a hotbed of hate for Israel, Secretary General António Guterres effectively justified the brutal and sadistic Hamas assault.

Israel is at war and antisemitism is soaring in America. Please let me hear from you today.

Thank you for your much-appreciated friendship. Together, let's pray for the Jewish people and stand with Israel in her time of need. CIDI
